RE: Privacy complaint about Apple Inc. One Apple Park Way Cupertino, CA 95014

Dear John:

Thank you for submitting a complaint to the California Privacy Protection Agency ("Agency").

Complaints are important for our enforcement efforts. We will retain the information you provide in our files and may contact you if we need additional information, for example to request additional facts about the complaint. No further action is required from you at this time. Investigations are generally confidential unless and until a matter becomes public through an enforcement action. For more information about the law and answers to frequently asked questions, please see <https://coppa.ca.gov/faq.html>.

Please note that we cannot represent you, advocate for you with the business, or force the business to satisfy individual requests for relief. If you would like to consult an attorney, you can obtain a referral to a certified lawyer referral service through the California State Bar at (866) 442-2525 (toll-free in California) or (415) 538-2250 (from outside California), or online at <https://www.calbar.org>. If you cannot afford to pay an attorney, contact your local legal aid office to see if you qualify for free or reduced-rate legal assistance. For a referral to local legal aid offices, visit <https://lawhelp.ca.gov> and click on the Search for Legal Help tab.

Thank you again for contacting the Agency about this matter.

Sincerely,

CALIFORNIA PRIVACY PROTECTION AGENCY
Complaints Unit
